

TABLE OF CONTENTS

(Foster)children and odd behaviour!?! /
Martine F. Delfos
ISBN 90-6665-426-0 BV Uitgeverij SWP

Introduction

Foster anxiety

Martine F. Delfos
A negative spiral caused by foster anxiety
Competence in Practice
Just anxiety and foster anxiety

Adoption

René Hoksbergen
I wish I was 'normal'
Competence in Practice
The big difference

Loyalty

Else-Marie van den Eerenbeemt and Nelly Bakhuizen
I didn't know how to be a son and a foster-son
Competence in Practice
We don't have a mummy but a mother

Ancestral anxiety

Mark Meerum Terwogt
The power of the genes
Competence in Practice
A photograph of grandma above the bed provides peace of mind

Attachment

Myrthe van Druten
The chances of becoming attached to a foster family
Competence in Practice
Wanting to get close but not daring to

Mourning

Riet Fiddelaars-Jaspers
A foster child in mourning. Am I included?
Competence in Practice
I couldn't grasp the fact that I would never see Daddy again

Sexual abuse

Francien Lamers
How do you cope with a sexually abused child in your home?
Competence in Practice
Shirley - an incalculable child

ADHD

Boudewijn W.B. Gunning
ADHD and foster children
Competence in Practice
Lively all day - every day

Borderline

Martine F. Delfos
Borderline, a changing pattern
Competence in Practice
Screaming for attention

Depression

Cees A.M. de Wit
Depression at a young age
Competence in Practice
Sometimes the burden of life is too heavy

Bullying

Tineke Snaterse
Bullying and being bullied
Competence in Practice
It got completely out of hand

Autism

Ina van Berckelaer-Onnes

Autism hides in small corners

Competence in Practice

Step by step on the way to something better

Social awkwardness

Pim Steerneman

Lacking social skills: hereditary or (not) learned?

Competence in Practice

Unskilled in what is acceptable and what is not

Information about the authors